[TFR 169-1]

Some information on American pilots

1. Captain Filip Nil Batler [Butler, Phillip Neal], born in California, wife in California, mother and sister in Oklahoma, daughter - Dajyana.
Flew a "Skyhawk" from the carrier "Midway". He was shot down in 1965 over the Nge An province.
In June of 1965 he was presented to foreign journalists.

2. Gajdn Lokkhart [Lockhart, Hayden James], Springfield, Ohio. Wife Dzhil lives in Alexandria, Virginia.

Flew the "F-100" fighter, was shot down in March of 1965 over the Kuang Binh province, fell on the territory of the Le Tkhyui Uyezd.
From the squadron of Major Rober F. Ronk.

3. On the 1st of June 1965, an "AD-5" motorized reconnaissance aircraft was shot down over the village of Ben Ngy, Thanh Hoa province. The aircraft exploded upon impact with the ground. It had a 4-man crew, all perished. It is possible that they are buried there [at the crash site]. [This aircraft is probably an EA-1F shot down on the same date with crew of Amspacher, McMican, Plants and Romano.]

4. On the redacted(3) the 300th American aircraft (according to Vietnamese statistics) was shot down over Vinh.

The pilot was buried at the crash site. The inscription on the grave marker on the burial mound was only a surname - redacted(3) [handwritten in English [redacted]](b)(3)

5. In June of 1966 an "F-105D" [handwritten in English] fighter-bomber from the 303rd Attack Squadron, based at Takhli, Thailand, was shot down over Hanoi. The pilot, Captain Mehrfi Nil Dzhoj [Jones, Murphy Neal], was born on the 3rd of January 1938 in the state of Louisiana. He ejected and was captured in the suburbs of Hanoi.

[TFR 169-2]

6. Robinson Rajsner [Risner, Robinson], born in 1925 in the state of Oklahoma and a veteran of the Korean War, was shot down on the 16th of September 1965 in the Thanh Hoa province. In June of 1966 he was presented to foreign journalists.

[handwritten in English "Information provided 11 August 93 by Kobelev, Evgenii Vasilievich, senior researcher at Russian Institute of Oriental Studies. Information is extracted from his notebooks dating from when he was a correspondent in Vietnam (NFI) [No further information]."]